

HULL UNIVERSITY TEACHING HOSPITALS

PERSON SPECIFICATION – CLINICAL SPECIALIST RADIOGRAPHER ACUTE LEAD

	ESSENTIAL	DESIRABLE
QUALIFICATIONS	Hold a recognised graduate degree healthcare degree or equivalent Hold or be working towards an advanced practice accredited MSc in a relevant subject. Hold a recognized ultrasound qualification to a minimum level of Post Graduate Certificate awarded by an Consortium for Accreditation of Sonographic Education (CASE) approved higher educational provider or equivalent*. *Candidates will need portfolio of evidence outlining fulfilment of equivalent learning outcomes in a non-CASE accredited qualification. Hold current HCPC registration or equivalent on the public voluntary Register of Clinical Technologist http://therct.org.uk/ Have an up to date professional development portfolio. Specialist training and relevant supporting qualification in head & neck ultrasound (PG Cert).	Hold EDCL or demonstrate proficient IT skills Specialist training and relevant supporting qualification in specialised field of practice Have undertaken or be working towards managerial or leadership training Have an up to date professional development portfolio.

EXPERIENCE	Demonstrate specialist experience in the head & neck field of medical ultrasound. Provide evidence of reporting writing equivalent to career level 7 practice of sonographers, as described in the NHSE career progression framework for sonographers Demonstrate experience in undertaking delegated managerial tasks Demonstrate experience of multi-disciplinary team working and evidence of supporting service developments Demonstrate experience of undertaking PDR's as part of the Trust appraisal process	Demonstrate experience in managing staff in areas such as setting objectives, managing attendance and managing poor performance Demonstrate evidence of leadership Experience of project management
SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE & ABILITIES	Demonstrate theoretical, practical and professional knowledge regarding the safe use of ultrasound. Demonstrate an ability to perform ultrasound examinations at an advanced level of competency equivalent to career level 7, as described in the NHSE career progression framework for sonographers. Manage own case load effectively, providing patient management advice and guidance within scope of practice of role Demonstrate an ability to provide training and support to practitioners	Demonstrate an ability to deliver education to extended role radiographers and practitioners who are developing ultrasound skills in specialized field of practice

	who are developing ultrasound skills Knowledge of the local ultrasound service model
PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES	Excellent communications skills. Ability to work as an effective team worker. Able to work independently. Team leadership and motivation skills High level organization skills are required
PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES	Able to work extended hours (between 8am – 6pm 7 days per week) Ability to participate in the weekend ultrasound service. Able to work flexible hours with sufficient notice. Able to travel extensively between sites within the employing Trust and wider Humber Coast and Vale cancer alliance
ADDITIONAL INFORMATION	Hold a full UK driving licence	